6. Forthcoming County Council Elections

Clr Bull announced that as the County Council Elections were due to take place he was now in a period of "purdah" and unable to make any observations or promises of action

7. Matters Brought Forward

7.1 Development at Meadowview

The chair reported that work appeared to have stopped on the site and that the Portaloo for contractors had also gone.

However the roadstone drive into the development appeared to be creating drainage issues on the main road.

Clr Morley suggested that the owner of the land present his proposals to the Village to alleviate any concerns.

The chair agreed to speak to Mr owner of the Land, Mr Eaton to find out his views.

7.2 Roads and drainage

Mr Harris arranging for the work to be carried out later this month.

7.3 Local Village Plan

Chair to arrange meeting with Councillors to discuss a way forward.
